Our Global Employer Services Team is looking for you!

With the ever increasing focus on global compliance by tax authorities, the timely management and compliant delivery of compensation and payroll is becoming increasingly important.

The Global Employer Services (GES) team, as part of the Deloitte Tax & Legal practice at Deloitte, provides multi-national companies with targeted advice and strategies for running Global Mobility programs in an efficient manner. Our team supports clients with the end-to-end management of global compensation for internationally mobile employees and with local Swiss payroll and shadow payroll solutions.

What we offer: you will be part and work closely together with our Global Mobility tax and immigration professionals. Our payroll team is fully integrated with this team, which will give you the opportunity to develop yourself in other areas than payroll and be part of an end-to-end service delivery to our clients. You will work in an international environment and will have the opportunity to help further develop our payroll offering that is growing fast. You will have the opportunity to work independently, take ownership of your engagements, grow, and lead a team. We consider Swiss and international payroll as one of our key focus areas for future growth and you will be part of an exciting journey.

We provide a team oriented culture that allows for both personal and professional growth.
